Lunch & Learn | 11am

As part of the Coburg Village community, you become part of something special and unparalleled. Surrounded by a sense of family, friendship, and fun, all you need to do is relax and focus on what's most important to you while we take care of the cooking, housekeeping, and transportation. You are left with the gift of time to enjoy your retirement with family and new friends.

As the most established independent living community in the Capital District, we offer the perfect combination of experience and modern conveniences. As a non-profit that is committed to the physical, emotional & spiritual needs of seniors, Coburg is set up for resort-style living for active seniors, providing the most services and amenities of any community in the area with NO buy-ins.

Can't attend? Call us for a private appointment or more information on upcoming events.
